and our relationship with you

WHAT IS A FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE & ADVISER PROFILE?

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) explains the financial services and advice provided by Adrians Wealth Management Pty Ltd and your Financial Adviser (Adviser), who is an authorised representative of Adrians Wealth Management Pty Ltd. The FSG provides information on what to expect during the financial advice process including the types of documents you are likely to receive, how we manage privacy, related parties, and potential conflicts of interests, and how we manage complaints.

This FSG should be read in conjunction with the Adviser Profile. The Adviser Profile contains important information about your Adviser, including their relevant authorised representative number, qualifications, experience, areas of authorisation and how they get paid. If you have not received an Adviser Profile, please ask your Adviser for a copy, or contact us directly.

WHAT IS OUR ADVICE PROCESS AND THE DOCUMENTS YOU MAY RECEIVE?

Your adviser's role is to guide you through the advice process. This includes the following steps:

Initial Consultation

This is a no cost opportunity to meet with your financial adviser and make a decision as to whether you'd like to engage us to provide advice.

In this meeting your adviser will work with you to understand your financial goals, objectives, and current position. They will also gather any relevant information generally via a Fact Find and file notes that is required to be able to provide you with appropriate advice.

You can expect to be asked questions related to your income, expenses, assets, liabilities, insurances, superannuation and potential investment preferences. It is important that you provide accurate information and keep your Adviser informed of any changes to your relevant circumstances. Your Adviser will ask you to consent to your personal information being collected and stored. Please refer to the 'Privacy' section for more information on how we manage your privacy.

Your Adviser will also need to verify your identity to comply with Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing laws.

Strategy and Personal Advice

After obtaining relevant information and your consent to proceed, your Adviser will conduct research and develop a strategy to assist you to meet your goals and objectives.

Where personal financial advice is being provided, the strategy will be documented in an advice document. For any initial advice this would generally be documented via a Statement of Advice (SOA). The advice will include, amongst other things, the basis of the advice, an explanation of the strategies and products recommended, and relevant disclosures including costs of the advice and products.

Where a financial product has been recommended, you will generally be provided with a copy of the relevant Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). The PDS includes detailed information on the financial product including features, benefits, conditions, costs and cooling off rights (if applicable).

Depending on your relevant circumstances, you may require further advice such as adjustments to superannuation contributions, insurance benefit amounts, or a review of your strategy.

Further advice can generally be documented in a Record of Advice (ROA) and relevant file notes. In some instances, a new SOA may be required. You may request, in writing, a copy of any advice document up to seven (7) years after the advice has been given.

Implementation

Where you elect to proceed with the recommendations we will work with you to implement the strategy. This may include liaising with various insurance, superannuation, or investment product issuers.

Where the recommendations include the purchase of an insurance policy, you may also need to complete a Confidential Health Questionnaire. It is important to disclose any health or personal matters truthfully. Failure to disclose certain matters may result in a claim being denied.

Ongoing Service and Advice

Establishing your financial strategy is important. Equally important is ongoing advice to cater for changes in your personal circumstances, legislation, economic and financial conditions. Your Adviser may recommend that you engage us to review your advice on an ongoing basis.

You may agree to an Ongoing Fee Arrangement or Fixed Term Agreement with your Adviser. An Ongoing Fee Arrangement outlines the services you will be provided for a fee over a 12-month period, whereas a Fixed Term Agreement can be used for service periods less than 12 months or on an ad-hoc basis. You may be required to sign a Fee Consent Form where the fee is deducted from your relevant investment or superannuation provider.

You may cease any fee arrangements or disengage from your Adviser by providing written notice to your Adviser or product issuer.

Likewise, we encourage you to contact your Adviser whenever your circumstances change to see if your strategy or the products that underpin that strategy need to be adjusted.

GENERAL ADVICE

Your Adviser may provide you with general advice that does not consider your personal circumstances, needs or objectives. Your Adviser will give you a warning when they provide you with general advice. You should consider whether you need personal advice which takes into account your individual situation before you make any decisions.

HOW CAN YOU GIVE US INSTRUCTIONS?

Your Adviser may accept your instructions by phone, text message, letter, or email.

In some instances, your Adviser can only accept written instructions from you, and they will let you know when this is required. Your Adviser will also need to verify your identity prior to acting on instructions.

HOW ARE WE PAID?

Your adviser is employed by Adrians Wealth Management Pty Ltd | ABN13 640 216 539, Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL) Number 522841, and may be authorised to provide advice and services on behalf of the following entities which are all owned by Adrians Wealth Management Pty Ltd:

Your Adviser

Adrians Wealth Management and associated CARs are remunerated by:

- Advice and service fees paid by you
- Commissions paid by insurance providers

As fiduciaries, we look to present fees that we believe are fair and represent value. Our aim is to put our clients in a better financial position over the long term 'net of fees' paid.

Fees are calculated based on your individual needs and requirements and the extent of any services provided to you. Before commencing work for you, we will discuss and agree with you the scope of the services to provide, the cost of providing those services and the method of payment.

Your advice and service fee may be charged as:

- a flat fee; or
- percentage-based fee up to a maximum of 2% (e.g., if you had a balance of $500,000 and the agreed fee with your adviser was a percentage fee of 1.10% the amount you would pay would be $5,500, noting that the fee would vary as related to the balance of your fund); or
- a combination of both.

Our minimum fees and insurance commissions are set out below (all amounts includes Goods and Services Tax (GST)):

Initial Fee These fees are paid when you have agreed to receive our advice	$3,300
Ongoing Adviser Service Fee These fees are paid as part of your agreed Ongoing Advice arrangement as agreed in your Fixed Term Agreement or Ongoing Fee Agreement.	$3,300
Hourly Rate For ad-hoc assistance and support outside the initial advice or ongoing advice arrangement we may charge an hourly rate.	$550 p/h
Insurance Commission Based on a percentage of insurance premiums	22% to 66%

Once we have provided our initial advice, we may charge a fee to cover the cost of implementation which can be extensive. This fee will vary depending on the level and complexity of work involved however we will discuss and agree all additional costs with you prior to incurring them.

All fees and commissions are initially paid to the AFSL (Adrians Wealth Management Pty Ltd) before being distributed to the relevant CAR.

Your Adviser may also receive non-monetary benefits which include benefits of less than $300, benefits related to education and training (including attendance at professional development days and conferences), and provision of software related to the financial products being recommended.

Any referral arrangements or related party arrangements your Adviser has in place will be disclosed in the Adviser Profile and your Statement of Advice.

Please refer to the Adviser Profile for more details on the specific benefits, interests, and associations for your financial Adviser.
